Discharge from Her Ears—Top of Her Head Broke out in Scrofulous Eruptions

Grew Worse Under Treatment Till We Gave Her Hood's Sarsaparilla—She Has Rosy Cheeks Now.

"When my baby was two months old she cried night and day, and seemed to be in great pain. She had a discharge from her ears, and the top of her head broke out in scrofulous eruptions. The doctor gave me something to stop the discharge and ease the pain, but his treatment did not cure her and we were sorry to see

She Grew Worse Instead of better. The top of her head broke out with scrofula. A crust would form on her head and fall off, taking the hair along with it, and this continued for two or three months, when something seemed to tell me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and I did so, together with Hood's Pills and Hood's Olive Ointment. Soon and the sores were rapidly healing. In a short time her hair grew out and she now has rosy cheeks and is all right in every way." Mrs. I. LLOYD, Spring Valley, N. Y.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is the Best—in fact the One True Blood Purifier. Sold by all druggists. $1, six for $5. N. B. If you decide to take Hood's do not be induced to buy any substitute. Get only Hood's.

AN INTERESTING LIFE

Sketch of Mr. Henry D. Van Wyck and Some of His Adventures.

HE WAS ONE OF THE FORTY MINERS

Discovered Two of the Richest Places in Mines to the United States—Ran Stages from Yreka to Red Bluff—His Investments in the North and South.

The Poughkeepsie (N. Y.) Courier in a recent issue presented a detailed sketch of Mr. Henry D. Van Wyck, the owner of the Academy of Music building, of this city, which is very interesting. From the account it is learned that Mr. Van Wyck is a native of Fishkill. He was born October 27, 1823, at the old Van Wyck homestead, on the Hudson. This property has been in the possession of his family for over one hundred years. The mansion is of the Colonial type and is noted as the house in which the proceedings of the first Legislature of the State of New York were printed. He was educated in the district school and at College Hill Academy in Poughkeepsie. After leaving school he clerked in a wholesale tobacco warehouse in New York for three years. The next two years he engaged in the oil business and then he went to Kalamazoo, Mich., where he devoted his energies to sheep raising and wheat growing.

In 1849 Mr. Van Wyck went to California. He bought the barque "Galindo" and made an exploring trip north along the coast of California and Oregon, acting as captain himself and engaging James Kiddell as sailing master. They carried sixty passengers who were in search of a river laid down on one of Van Couver's charts as flowing into Trinidad Bay. They found the bay, but no stream large enough to be called a river. While in Trinidad Bay Mr. Van Wyck and his party found a tribe of Indians by whom they were treated with great kindness, as they were also by a large band at Klamath river, under Chief Cawtapiash, who governed eighteen hundred warriors. Mr. Van Wyck's party were the first whites they had ever seen, as the country which greeted Van Couver's men had come to the happy hunting grounds.

The great "Gold Bluff" claims, eight miles south of the Klamath river, were discovered by Mr. Van Wyck and James Johnson. They are still being worked. In 1850 Mr. Van Wyck sold his interest to A. J. Butler, brother of Gen. Benjamin F. Butler. He then procured thirty mules from San Francisco and explored the country to the "Yreka" Mining Camp, at the foot of Mt. Shasta. At Yreka Mr. Van Wyck opened a store and became the largest dealer in that country. He remained there until 1860, when he went to Portland, Ore., and remained there six months, forming another expedition which started for Idaho Territory. The party penetrated to a point sixty miles north of the present site of Boise City. Finding placer gold in abundance they started Idaho City. In nine months eighteen thousand miners were there at work washing out and precious metal in enormous quantities.

The Yreka Camp and Idaho City Camp were two of the richest mining places ever discovered in the United States, and Mr. Van Wyck was the leader of the parties that discovered both camps.

For several years Mr. Van Wyck ran stages from Yreka to Red Bluff, Cal., (160 miles) carrying Wells, Fargo & Co.'s express daily and having at times from 500 to 1,000 pounds of gold dust to be mined at San Francisco and carried back as coin. He never lost one dollar by road agents.

In 1869 Mr. Van Wyck was induced by George P. Gordon, inventor of the Gordon printing press, with whom he had been acquainted a number of years, to sell his interests in Idaho and invest his money South. The two made large purchases in the vicinity of Norfolk, Va. Mr. Gordon died in 1879 and three years later Mr. Van Wyck married his widow, who died in California, in 1890, of pneumonia.

The Ross farm at Fishkill was purchased in 1890 by Mr. Van Wyck. He spent $51,000 on the property and made out of it a beautiful place.

All the members of the party expressed themselves as greatly pleased with the twin cities and the section roundabout, and will return to their homes with a better idea of Southern progress than they even had before. They left last night via the New Bay Line for Baltimore, from which city they will proceed to Washington, where they will be received Monday by President McKinley.

WANT FOUR HUNDRED.

Move to Secure New Members to the B. of T. and B. M. A.

Since the amalgamation of the trade organizations into one body there has been an increase in the membership of the Board of Trade and Business Men's Association of about one hundred members.

The organization hopes to make this membership four hundred within the next few days, and during that time the initiation fee of $10 has been suspended as an inducement to those contemplating becoming members, so that for those who join between February 14th and February 24th the membership will cost only $24, or $2 per month. The committee on personal solicitation in this connection consists of Messrs. H. B. Goodridge, R. Henry Jones and W. H. Wales.

But it will be impossible for this committee to see everyone, and those who desire to become members, who have not been seen, are asked to address their application to Mr. Goodridge, as chairman of the committee, or to Mr. Charles Pickett, secretary of the association.

TO FIGHT THE BILL.

Building and Loan Men Appoint a Committee to Go to Richmond.

Nothing has happened in building and loan circles in years which has so stirred up the officers and stockholders of these organizations as the proposed legislation against them, particularly the Schwitzer bill, which has been introduced into the Virginia legislature and which will come before the committee Monday for consideration.

When this measure was first introduced the building and loan men here held a meeting and prepared for battle.

Yesterday another meeting was held. A committee was appointed to go to Richmond to appear before the committee. The majority of this committee, probably all of them, will go up today. The bill is meeting with very strong opposition and it is said that there is good reason to suppose it will be unfavorably reported. It is understood that the delegation from this section is solid against it.

What pleasure is there in life with a headache, constipation and biliousness? Thousands experience them who could become perfectly healthy by using Dr. Williams' Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. J. M. F. Trotter, Norfolk; R. L. Walker, Brambleton; Trullitt & Smith, Berkeley.

THE GALE JEWELRY CO.

IN MEMORY

of MRS. MARGARET ANN EGGS.

Departed this life January 21st, 1898.

The Party Shown Over This City Yesterday.

Every kind and considerate to all and especially to the poor, the death of this estimable lady has proved a crushing blow to her dear friends. Possessing and practicing the teaching of Christianity in her daily life, she was never unmindful of others' sorrows, and cheerfully extended the "helping hand" in such a manner that "the right hand knew not what the left hand did." To the poor of the Fourth Ward, who will never forget her kindness, her loss is well nigh irreparable. God grant that her reward be great in Heaven.
